FROM THE PASTOR

KATHARINE DREXEL AND THE GIFT OF HEARING

In his most recent column Archbishop Chaput writes, “We live in a time of anger, confusion and anxiety in the nation, but also in the Church. We can’t escape, and we need to face, the difficulties that burden us. But we can prevent them from undermining our faith and compromising our sound judgment. To borrow a truth from the Letter to the Romans, where evil abounds -- including evil within the Church and among her leaders -- holiness abounds more. God does not abandon his Church. In every generation (our own, like every other) he sends men and women to restore her purity and revive her mission. In moments of bitterness, this can sound like pious plabum, but the witness of thousands of saints proves that it’s true. We needn’t look far for an example with Philadelphia roots.” For the entire article see the OLG website.

USCCB RESPONDS TO MORAL FAILURES OF JUDGEMENT ON THE PART OF CHURCH LEADERS

August 1, 2018...WASHINGTON—Cardinal DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, has issued the following statement noting the steps the U.S. Bishops Conference will take in addressing the failures of the Church in protecting the people of God.

“The accusations against Archbishop McCarrick reveal a grievous moral failure within the Church. They cause bishops anger, sadness, and shame; I know they do in me. They compel bishops to ask, as I do, what more could have been done to protect the People of God. Both the abuses themselves, and the fact that they have remained undisclosed for decades, have caused great harm to people’s lives and represent grave moral failures of judgement on the part of Church leaders.

I have convened the USCCB Executive Committee, but allow me to stress these four points immediately. First, I encourage my brother bishops to respond with compassion and justice to anyone who has been sexually abused or harassed by anyone in the Church.

Second, I urge anyone who has experienced sexual assault or harassment by anyone in the Church to come forward. Third, the USCCB will pursue the many questions surrounding Archbishop McCarrick’s conduct to the full extent of its authority; and where that authority finds its limits, the Conference will advocate with those who do have the authority.

Finally, we bishops recognize that a spiritual conversion is needed as we seek to restore the right relationship among us and with the Lord.

2018, ELAINE H. IRELAND, COME AND SEE

*Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it.
He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD!"*

PONDERING THE WORD...

A prophet's life is lonely and hard. When we think of Elijah, we might be tempted to imagine him, a saint of the Old Testament, being whisked into heaven on a chariot of fire. But for the 20 or so years he prophesied in Israel, he was considered a nuisance, "a disturber." He spent most of his time on the run or in hiding. In this passage, we hear he is ready to throw in the towel. He questions himself and his call; he questions God. His words remind me of Peter's when he is too is called: "Depart from me Lord, for I am a sinful man."

When we study the lives of holy people throughout the ages, we might tend to sanitize their lives, looking only at their holiness or dramatic sacrifices. Conversely, especially for more modern day saints, we might look more closely at their shortcomings. Pope Francis tells us in his recent exhortation, Gaudete Et Exsultate:

Not everything a saint says is completely faithful to the Gospel; not everything he or she does is authentic or perfect. What we need to contemplate is the totality of their life, their entire journey of growth in holiness, the reflection of Jesus Christ that emerges when we grasp their overall meaning as a person. [22]

In the reading from Ephesians today, Paul gives us sound advice as to how we might work on our saintly and prophetic call: "Live in love." Yes, he means we should strive to show compassion and kindness as we go about our day, but even more so, he calls us to live in awareness of God's presence—Love—at all times. God's love is the nourishment we need to strengthen us on our journey to holiness.

LIVING THE WORD...

Continuing with the Pope's words:

This is a powerful summons to all of us. You too need to see the entirety of your life as a mission. Try to do so by listening to God in prayer and recognizing the signs that he gives you. Always ask the Spirit what Jesus expects from you at every moment of your life and in every decision you must make, so as to discern its place in the mission you have received... May you come to realize what that word is, the message of Jesus that God wants to speak to the world by your life. [23, 24]

If you are feeling the temptation to seek out the nearest "broom tree," challenge yourself to consider instead ways to live in love.

IS YOUR BALANCE WOBBLY?

Did you know that balance begins to decline after the age of 50? Better balance begins with learning to move more gracefully. Equally important is improving posture, sharpening awareness and strengthening the core. Reliable, safe and agile movement begins with a base of good balance. If living an active, independent life is important to you, don't miss this opportunity!

Our Lady of Guadalupe Health and Wellness Ministry is hosting a one-day balance seminar that teaches active adults how to be anchored, upright and agile in an unpredictable world and prevent the likelihood of a life-changing fall.
