FROM THE PASTOR MIDTERM ELECTION RESOURCES

Dear Parishioners,

November 8, 2022 is election day in Pennsylvania with various federal, state, and local races on the ballot. In order to assist Catholics as they prepare to vote with formed consciences, the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference has produced a Statewide Voter Information Resource. This documents seeks to educate the faithful about candidates and their positions on issues of importance to Catholic voters.

All of these documents were sent via email and are available on the parish website at the link below. If you are not receiving our parish emails, please sign up on the parish website homepage or call the parish office.

I also shared a link to, Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, developed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Available in English/Spanish on our website.

Kindly consider sharing this material broadly with others. Please bear in mind that neither the USCCB, PCC, nor the Archdiocese of Philadelphia endorse or oppose any candidate for political office.

Please note that no other resources have been approved to be distributed in the narthex or parking lot and I kindly ask you not to place any materials on cars or the tables in the narthex. The above mentioned are the only resources I have approved to be forwarded to our parishioners. Thank you.

In the Peace of Christ,

Monsignor Gentili

OLG INTERFAITH DAY OF SERVICE

For Christian Women of Faith

Saturday, November 12, 8:30 a.m., Parish Life Center (PLC)

Meet at 8:30 a.m. for light refreshments then meal assembly

End about 12:30 to 1 p.m.

Join us as we come together as "women of faith" to glorify God by serving those in need. The Health and Wellness and Ladies of OLG Ministries are pleased to team up with the Women's Ministry from The Church of Jesus Christ Latter-Day Saints (Ferry Road, Doylestown) for a Day of Service to assemble meals for Caring for Friends. The food for the Caring for Friends meals will be cooked in advance and brought to the (PLC) on November 12.

There are several ways to participate so that even those not able to personally attend the event can cook in advance and still be part of the Day of Service. Here's how:

- Health & Wellness Ministry will buy large pork roasts that simply need to be roasted and sliced - then brought to the PLC on Saturday morning. You can drop off the dish if you can't stay, and/or
- Health and Wellness will also buy noodles that will need to be boiled and buttered and brought to the event, and/or
- You can cook a main course (for 8 to 10 people) of your choosing and bring it to the PLC, and/or
- You can make a starch (potato, rice, pasta, etc. for 8 to 10 people) and bring it to the PLC, and/or
- You can join us in assembling, packaging and freezing the meals while enjoying the company of other women of faith.

Sign up for any of these opportunities at Christian Women of Faith: Interfaith Day of Service - OLG (signupgenius.com)

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
