FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I wanted to inform you that after 14 years of dedicated service to Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, Karen Talocci has retired. Karen was an integral part of our parish and was the only person on the current staff that worked at the original parish office on York Road. Karen helped with two parish office moves, the building of the new Church and Parish Life Center and supported our parish volunteers and members.

We offer Karen best wishes as she moves on to spend more time with her family. She will always be a part of the OLG Family. Please keep Karen in your prayers as she starts this new phase of her life.

Sincerely in Our Lord

Rev. Monsignor Joseph P. Gentili

Pastor, Our Lady of Guadalupe Church

Health & Wellness Ministry's Day of Service

Saturday, May 13, 2023

8:30 am – 12:30 pm

Parish Life Center

There are many ways to help!

Join us on May 13th for a fun morning with fellow parishioners and guests from the Church of Latter-Day Saints in Doylestown. Together, we will assemble meals for Caring for Friends. Please note: All food will be cooked at home in advance, so we need lots of help!

You can also help with the cooking. We will purchase large pork roasts and noodles to be prepared at home with full instructions included.

Or you can prepare a favorite entree or side dish at home and bring it to the event.

Families are welcome! Moms, dads, and children over 12 can help with the meal assembly and children under 12 can join us to make handcrafted cards to attach to the meals. Those under age 12 must also have an adult in attendance.

To sign up, please visit our Sign Up Genius
