FROM THE PASTOR

ARCHBISHOP JOINS BISHOPS TO PLEDGE SUPPORT FOR SEX ABUSE SURVIVORS' COMPENSATION

Archbishop Chaput joined all of the Catholic bishops of Pennsylvania in issuing a joint statement pledging their support for an independent sex abuse survivors' compensation program. In solidarity, they envision a program that is administered by experts who will operate independently from the Church. It will seek to provide financial assistance for survivors regardless of when they suffered abuse. For more information see: www.olguadalupe.com/monsignor-reports

5TH NATIONAL ENCUENTRO

This national gathering in Texas is the culmination of a three years process dedicated to developing effective ministry for Hispanic Catholics in the United States. Bishops Edward Deliman and John McIntyre led the 19 person delegation from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to this event where they were joined by approximately 3,000 Hispanic/Latino Ministry leaders/delegates from dioceses, ecclesial movements, schools, universities and Catholic organizations from the country. For information and resources, please visit: vencuentro.org/

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Saturday, October 6,
9 a.m., OLG Church

In honor of the feast of Saint Francis of Assisi we will have the blessing of animals. All who wish to have their animals blessed are asked to bring them to the front of the church on Saturday morning. All animals are welcome.

FIRST FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5 FIRST FRIDAY OBSERVATION

First Friday is a special time of grace and blessing, as it enables us, through Eucharistic Adoration, to grow closer to Our Lord, Who is present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Most Blessed Sacrament. First Friday is a time to slow down a bit and receive God's love into our hearts, so we in turn can give that love to others.

How can I get Involved in this Special Time?

Visit the Saint Juan Diego Chapel and spend some quiet time in prayer with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. The chapel will be open after the 8 a.m. Mass until the Benediction at 6:45 p.m. Sign up for a half-hour of Eucharistic Adoration today. Or just show up! To sign up, utilize the following SignUp Genius link:

Archdiocese of Philadelphia
Office of the Archbishop
222 North 17th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103-1299

Dear friends,

Earlier this month I marked seven years as your archbishop. During that time, our Church has faced and solved some very difficult problems. None of that could have been done without your patience, generosity and support. I'm very grateful to all of you, and to each of our parish communities.

The grand jury report released in August did not involve the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, but it does impact all of us. As I've shared with you previously, any form of retroactive statewide "window" or "reviver" legislation to address the abuse issue in decades past would be unjust to the innocent Catholic laypeople, clergy, and families who make up our community today. It would also be financially disastrous to our ministries, our parishes, and the Archdiocese at large.

However, the bishops of Pennsylvania do understand and deeply regret the suffering of survivors and have committed to voluntarily helping abuse victims whose claims are time-barred. I joined with bishops across the Commonwealth on September 21 to release a statement explaining our commitment. That statement can be found on our archdiocesan website. Please do take the time to read it. Obviously, this course of action will require extraordinary Church resources, but it can avoid the bitter litigations and diocesan bankruptcies that will follow any destructive changes in the statute of limitations. The details of such a proposed program are under development. I'll share them fully with you once finalized.

In the meantime, I encourage all our lay faithful and clergy to pray the Prayer of St. Michael in all our parishes and institutions. I have also asked our Office for Divine Worship to develop, again as soon as possible, appropriate weekly intentions for the Liturgy's universal prayer and a monthly schedule of Holy Hours for three purposes: the healing of abuse survivors; in reparation for the sins of sexual abuse; and for the protection of our local Church. The weekly intentions and Holy Hour schedules are now available on the website of our Office for Divine Worship in both Spanish and English.

Finally, I ask you to pray for and support your pastors and each other, and to remember me in your prayers as well, as I do you every day. The coming months will be challenging. We need to ground ourselves in the Lord, the Church and each other; and if we do, there will come a time when today's anger and confusion are behind us.

Sincerely yours in Jesus Christ,

+
Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

FOREIGN MISSION MINISTRY

Father Bavon-Marie Speaking at all Masses this Weekend
September 29 and 30

Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish is pleased to welcome Father Mubakanda Bavon-Marie as he speaks at each Mass this weekend. As we have done in recent years, OLG is dedicating their 2018 Mission Co-op Collection to Father Bavon-Marie and St. Anne Parish/St. John Bosco School in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

Father Bavon-Marie is assigned to St. Anne Parish in the mountain village of Boise de Laurence in Haiti with a scattered agrarian population of about 20,000. OLG has been providing support through mission trips, donations of supplies, medicine and money for many years to this parish and school in Haiti.

The Saint John Bosco School was founded in 1974. The school enrolls over 700 students grades Kindergarten through Grade 6. There are about 45 students in each classroom and two or three classrooms per grade. The dedicated children, teachers and staff can walk up to four hours each way every school day to attend or teach class and many also attend Sunday service at one of the three sites serviced by St. Anne's. Many of the teachers also teach CCD on Saturday mornings for the local children of the communities. Seven cooks prepare a much needed nutritious meal that is subsidized by the World Food Program for all children each school day.

The biggest need of the Saint Jean Bosco School is continuous funding of teachers in order to maintain high quality education to the young and dedicated children of Bois de Laurence.

Our parish is planning a mission trip to Haiti in April 2019. If you would like more information about the trip contact Sean McArdle at seanpmcardle@aol.com or see foreign missions on the parish website. Please welcome Father to OLG.
