There are many ways to help!

Join us on May 13th for a fun morning with fellow parishioners and guests from the Church of Latter-Day Saints in Doylestown. Together, we will assemble meals for Caring for Friends. Please note: All food will be cooked at home in advance, so we need lots of help!

You can also help with the cooking. We will purchase large pork roasts and noodles to be prepared at home with full instructions included.

Or you can prepare a favorite entree or side dish at home and bring it to the event.

Families are welcome! Moms, dads, and children over 12 can help with the meal assembly and children under 12 can join us to make handcrafted cards to attach to the meals. Those under age 12 must also have an adult in attendance.

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
