FROM THE PASTOR

LETTERS FROM THE SYNOD:

The 'Off-Broadway' Synod, Neocolonialism, Africa Rising – and Veritatis Splendor

Monsignor recommends the following article as it offers an interesting perspective on the Synod that is currently happening in Rome. The action at Synod-2023 is not confined to the Vatican's Aula Paolo Sesto, the Paul VI Audience Hall where Synod members and sundry experts, facilitators, and staff meet for General Congregations and those carefully-managed small-group discussions called "Conversations in the Spirit."

As was the case during the Synods on marriage and the family in 2014 and 2015, on youth ministry (2018), and on Amazonia (2019), there is also underway here in Rome a large "Off-Broadway" Synod (or, to riff on the event that runs parallel to the Edinburgh International Festival, "a Fringe" Synod). The Off-Broadway or Fringe Synod consists of various ideologically flavored advocacy groups, lobbyists for numerous agendas, and a large media contingent. Read the article on our website.

Cameron Michael Kayris

Cameron Michael Kayris was born on 1/4/21 with Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome (HLHS). In short he only has 1/2 a heart. He underwent his first (of 3) open heart surgeries at just 3 days old. His second was at 4 months old. His third and final planned surgery will take place on 11/15/23. Naturally he's needed multiple blood transfusions and will need the same for his upcoming surgery. He is a miracle boy to anyone who knows him and continues to defy the odds with his strength and courage. Nothing holds him back. He is always on the go and can't keep away from playing sports all day long.

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
