FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Each April, our local Church joins in the national observance of Child Abuse Prevention Month. Protecting the children, young people, and vulnerable adults entrusted to our care is an extraordinary responsibility that demands our constant attention.

We participate in this annual initiative to shine the brightest light possible on our commitment to preventing child abuse through our comprehensive, on-going work to protect the young people entrusted to our care. I encourage you to visit www.childyouthprotection.org. This tells the story of where we have been, where we are, and where we are headed in our work to create safe environments and support survivors.

Lastly, I ask that you join me on April 30 for Blue Sunday, a national day of prayer for victims of abuse and those who care for them. This solemn observance will be preceded by Blue Monday, April 24. Wearing blue on that day is a demonstration of awareness and solidarity with our efforts to provide safe environments in our parishes, and youth ministry programs.

In Christ,

Monsignor Gentili

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
