FROM THE PASTOR

WHERE WE ARE.

WHAT WE'VE LEARNED.

WHERE WE ARE GOING.

YOU MAY BE INTERESTED TO KNOW SOME FACTS.

Periodically, I have shared information with you about items affecting the life of our local Church. These past months have been trying ones with respect to the release of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report and its aftermath. While that investigative matter did not involve our Archdiocese in any way, the findings it shared were difficult and painful for everyone to bear—most especially for survivors of abuse and their loved ones.

Today, there are two important updates on separate issues. The first involves recent legislative outcomes at the state level and the second pertains to a matter initiated by the United States Department of Justice.

Recent Legislative Outcomes in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

A number of recommendations were part of the state grand jury report released in August. Among them were reforms to criminal statutes and civil statutes in our state law aimed at punishing abusers and supporting abuse victims. Those matters have gained broad attention in the press over the past several weeks.

It's important to note, that the Archdiocese of Philadelphia continues to support reforms that will punish perpetrators and aid survivors by eliminating the criminal statute of limitations and lengthening the civil statute of limitations to allow individuals to file civil suits up until the age of 50—an action that would add 20 years to the current statute. We also support the proposal to strengthen mandatory reporter requirements. These reforms, recommended by the recent Pennsylvania grand jury, have garnered broad consensus and agreement. They are concrete steps that will protect children and hold perpetrators accountable.

The state legislature worked assiduously to tackle issues related to child protection and abuse survivor assistance while in session during the week of October 15th. Unfortunately, earnest efforts to find common ground and a path forward to support all those who have suffered were met with resistance.

Despite the outcome of the recent debate, we remain steadfast in fulfilling our responsibility to individuals who have been harmed—no matter when that harm occurred. The Archdiocese continues to recognize its responsibility to provide an opportunity for sexual abuse survivors whose cases are time-barred from pursuing civil claims to share their experiences, identify their abusers, and receive compensation to assist their healing and recovery.

Archbishop Chaput recently voiced his intention to create or participate in an independent, voluntary program that will include a panel of qualified experts to review individual cases and determine financial assistance for those who have been abused. To that end, we will honor our commitment to victims and we intend to play an active, positive role in efforts aimed at providing true healing and hope through programs already in place as well as new programs that will be administered independently of the Church.

Subpoena Issued by Federal Grand Jury

Beginning on Thursday, October 18th, news outlets reported that a federal grand jury had issued subpoenas to Catholic dioceses throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The media has also broadly reported that this investigative process will look at matters relative to sexual abuse of minors.

As communicated to the media through an official statement on October 18th, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia did receive a federally issued subpoena, which requires the production of certain documents and it will cooperate with the United States Department of Justice in this matter. As this is an active federal investigation, we are not able to comment further at this time.

This most recent development is disconcerting after all that we have witnessed over a period of many years. However, it is important to remember that over the past 15 years, the Archdiocese has put into practice a wide range of reforms to protect young people and provide assistance to survivors of abuse. For further information regarding those comprehensive efforts, please visit www.AOPpledgetoProtect.com.

ARCHBISHOP INTERVIEW WITH THE TORCH

Archbishop Chaput recently conducted an interview with Adriana Watkins of The Torch, the official Catholic newspaper of Boston College, to discuss current challenges facing young people and bishops in our Church.

Friday, November 2, 7 p.m., OLG Church

The month of November is a dedicated time in the Church to remember all who have died. All are welcome to join us for a special Mass of remembrance and prayer for our deceased loved ones. There will be refreshments after Mass.

During the month of November, a table will be set up at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe. You can place a picture of your loved one on the table for prayers and remembrance throughout the month. At the end of the month, please pick up the picture. We ask that you place your name on the back of the picture in the event it is not picked up.

In addition, you are also welcome to utilize the All Souls envelopes (part of your weekly envelopes) in order to remember the souls of the faithful departed.

SEMI-ANNUAL PARISH FINANCIAL UPDATE, OCTOBER 27 & 28, 2018

Richard Clark, Chair Parish Finance Council

On behalf of the Parish Finance Council, I'm here to give our semi-annual update on the state of our finances and at this time, it is our Year-End Update, which concluded on June 30.

During our last update we spent time discussing our Weekly Offertory and what that means. Recall that St. John Paul II pointed to the local parish as the place where families encounter Christ in very real, practical and pastoral circumstances. We try our best to promote these ideals in everything that we do here at Our Lady of Guadalupe. Our staff likes to refer to this commitment as the "Our Lady of Guadalupe Difference". With this as our guide, we suggest that there is no better investment in the world than this local parish. We have come so far since 2011 when we first began celebrating mass in our beautiful church and chapel. We have enjoyed our Parish Life Center for the past 15 months and now, as you can see, our spectacular courtyard is almost complete! Sort of...has anyone seen a fountain? We await its arrival any day now.

As you know, as Catholics and faithful parishioners of OLG, we have a responsibility to support the material needs of the Church to assist us in worship, ministry, service and charity to our neighbor. From our founding 18 years ago, we have endured many struggles, the first clergy scandal, raising the funds to build our parish facilities during the financial collapse and recession and now, in the midst of the present scandal, which has affected all of us so deeply and raises grave concerns and mixed emotions about our Church and her leaders. It might interest you to know that it has been during those difficult times of struggle and pain that from within the Church some of her finest saints have come forward to lead renewal and reform. Might this be a time when from among our parishioners that we are being called in various ways to witness to true reform and renewal and to authentic witness to our Catholic Faith.

I know I speak on behalf of Monsignor Gentili that you can be assured that the Finance Council, Pastoral Council, Clergy and Staff are committed to making this place of worship a safe environment for our youth and all who are a part of our worshipping community. We are committed to accountability, transparency and action (to growing disciples and making Church matter).

To that end, we need your help and continued commitment. I have referenced in our previous updates that we need to increase our Sunday collections to $32,000 per week to achieve financial solvency. During our past fiscal year, our average weekly collection was $27,165, which allowed us to pay for 93% of our expenses and our mortgage; the remaining 7% had to be funded by our very limited savings. This is not sustainable for our long-term financial well-being.

Our mortgage principal with the Archdiocese for the church and chapel has been reduced to $10.3 million, with the most recent annual payment of $435,000 on June 30. The interest payment for this current fiscal year will be $209,000. Our mortgage commitment is for the next 24 years, until 2042. The interest payment also assumes our current rate of 2%, which we will renegotiate in June of 2019.

To meet our mortgage commitments and to pay for our normal operating expenditures, our weekly collections need to increase to $32,000 per week by 2020. In order to meet that goal, we would need each parishioner to increase their weekly offertory by 10%; for example, if your weekly donation is $50, we ask that you increase it to $55. If you give $100 a week, we ask that you increase it to $110. If you haven't been able to contribute thus far, we ask that you begin to do so. If the entire parish participates in this 10% ask, we will definitely reach our goal, just as we have reached every one of our goals in the past as outlined in our strategic plan.

As we have mentioned, one easy and essential way to help reach this goal is by participating in Parish E-Giving, it is a safe and secure method of consistently giving to OLG. It is very easy to enroll, via the website or our kiosks in the Narthex. Egiving allows you to simply "pay for church" in the same manner you probably pay your other bills, on-line. Participation in e-giving has grown to 25% of contributions currently received. We are grateful to those who have transitioned to this method of consistent, sustained giving.

We all love our parish home here at OLG and the warm, welcoming environment that you feel every time you walk through the doors, encountering all of the vibrant ministries and services with which you interact on a regular basis. Can we count on you to keep this vibrancy alive and growing?

Thank you for your continued example in faith and commitment to our parish. May God bless you and your families.
