THE SEVEN COMMUNIST AND 36 ISLAMIC REGIMES THAT MOST PERSECUTE CHRISTIANS IN 2023

The world seen from Rome

JANUARY 19, 2023

ZENIT News

Communist totalitarianism and Islamic fundamentalism are the main causes of another year of persecution of Christians in the world.

It's a persecution that "has grown exponentially" over the last 30 years. It's the moment of the Christian NGO Puertas Abiertas [Open Doors], which reports annually on the persecution of Christians in the world. This year's Report was published on January 18 and offers very alarming data:

- 5,621 Christians were killed worldwide because of their faith in 2022.
- 4,542 Christians were arrested because of their faith over the last 12 months
- 2,110 Christian churches were attacked during the past year.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS MINISTRY

VISIT LOCAL NURSING HOME

The Health and Wellness Ministry is looking for volunteers to work with them at Harborview Rehab and Care Center, Doylestown. Many of the residents at this nursing home have no visitors and this ministry is one of the only groups who visit.

The residents call them "The Crafty Ladies" because they often do simple crafts with the residents. Our volunteers meet the residents in the dining room and bring plenty of snacks and special treats. They play bingo and simply spend time listening to them and enjoying their company. Volunteers visit every other Wednesday from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The joy they bring to the residents is evident by the smiles on their faces and the appreciation they show for the simple things they do to brighten their days. Please consider joining this ministry to help make a difference in these precious lives. Contact Dee Ciccarelli at deeciccarelli@hotmail.com or 215-407-6486.

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
